DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In claim 15, last 5 lines, the limitation that the arrangement will “selectively raise the free end of said gate relative to the opening in said vehicle to properly align said gate...” does not appear to be supported by the disclosure. The disclosed spare tire carrier or arrangement is disclosed as preventing distortion or sagging of the rear door by allowing adjustment of the legs and by the relative positioning of the tire and attachment locations of the carrier. It is not understood how the arrangement corrects or raises the door relative to the vehicle opening after sagging has occurred.

Specification

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: no description can be found of the terminology used in the last 5 lines of claim 15.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the embodiment “to selectively raise the free end of said gate relative..." as set forth in claim 15, last 5 lines must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. Claims 15-20 and 34-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The last 5 lines of claim 15 are unclear with respect to how the arrangement corrects or repositions a sagging rear door on a vehicle.

In each of claims 16, 20, 34, and 39, the term "mountable" is unclear insofar as the elements are being claimed "In a vehicle", i.e. if the elements are in the vehicle, they are already mounted as opposed to being capable of being mounted.

In claim 34, lines 4 and 5, "such as a spare tire" is unclear in scope, i.e. one cannot determine the scope of this phrase.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3727

6. Claim 15, as best understood in view of paragraphs 1-4 above, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wright in view of either Kreis et al or Newkirk. Wright discloses a rear gate on a vehicle but does not disclose an arrangement allowing correction of sagging of the door. Each of Kreis et al and Newkirk discloses hinge constructions which allow correction and adjustment of vehicle doors relative to the opening in the vehicle. It would have been obvious to make the rear door in Wright with hinges as taught by either Kreis et al or Newkirk to allow easy adjustment of the door due to sagging.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1-14 and 21-33 are allowed.
8. Claims 34-39 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
9. Due to the unclear disclosure regarding claims 16-20, no indication of allowability can be made at this time. Further consideration of these claims will be made upon response by Applicant.
